Principal's Corner

I'm sure you've done this, you lay your phone down somewhere and you forget where you put it. On the table where you put the mail? In the car? In your pocket or purse? You have checked all your usual places, but it's not there, and you forget where you put it!

*I, I am the one who forgives all your sins, I do this to please myself, I will not remember your sins.
Isaiah 43:25*

This passage speaks of God not remembering, only in this case it is a critical situation. Here He tells His rebellious people about their sins - that He will not remember them! He is full of forgetfulness. Does He really mean it? What comfort we have in knowing that God forgets our sins! He cites a phrase familiar to what a parent's retort might be to a demanding child. He begins His pronouncement, in effect by saying, "Because I said so! God enough for me. Good enough for me too."

Then He goes on about the reason for His forgetfulness - not old age, but to please Himself! It may be in vocabulary a bit unfamiliar to what we usually hear, but it's equivalent to the phrase "for Jesus' sake or "for My sake." In short, He forgives us because He loves us, even to the point of sending His Son Jesus to pay the penalty for our sins. And to top it off, He doesn't archive our sins and keep track of them to hold it against us in the future.

At Trinity we are blessed to be able to freely speak of the love and forgiveness of Jesus!

TLS is Hiring

We are sad to say that Mrs. Phillips, our teacher assistant in 2nd grade, has accepted another job in her field of study. Mrs. Phillips has been a great team with Mrs. Rehbein and she will be missed by the teachers, staff and students.

If you, or someone you know, would be interested in working in second grade alongside Mrs. Rehbein, please contact Mrs. White (laurawhite@trinityed.org). Along with an hourly pay, employees also receive a tuition discount.

Thrivent Members

Calling all Thrivent members! If you have not yet applied for your two Action Team grants for this calendar year and are willing to apply for a $250 grant to support a classroom auction project, please reach out to Mrs. Elliott at sarahelliott@trinityed.org. She will help you with all the details and application process. Thanks for considering!

Would you be interested in serving as a substitute for a teacher assistant? We have teacher assistants in Pre-kindergarten, kindergarten, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grade. If you are interested and would like more details, please contact Mrs. White at LauraWhite@Trinityed.org.

Adventures in Advent

We are collecting jars for Adventures in Advent. Please bring in your clean mayo, pickle or jelly jars to the office. It is even better if you can get the label off of them.

STEM Items needed

Miss Groeling and Miss Ogilvie are requesting some items you may have at your home and are willing to donate. The items can be old and even in poor condition and they will still take them. They are looking for: pool noodles, pvc pipe, cardboard, paper towel tubes, duck tape, dominoes or jenga blocks. All items can be brought to the STEM tub in the foyer by the school office.

TLS Shirts

Parents, would you like a TLS shirt with this years' theme? They can be purchased in the office for $10. Come pick your size!
